The winners of 'Obiettivo Alluminio'

The jury of 'Obiettivo Alluminio', the scholarship promoted by CIAL in ten different Italian chief towns of province, has selected the 10 best ideas among the hundreds sent by college students, one for each participating town: Trieste, Verona, Vicenza, Sondrio, Asti, Parma, Florence, Perugia, Rieti and Salerno. Each winner will be awarded with a digital camera and the chance to join the official jury of the Giffoni Film Festival (17th to 25th July, 2009). The youth, guest of the festival during the period of this event, will make up the Environment Jury that will present the CIAL Award for the Environment (a Griffin made of recycled aluminium) by choosing the film that best depicts the environmental and sustainable development issues. CIAL has satisfactorily registered that many young people have participated to this initiative. As many as 758 students coming from 162 colleges sent their
